2021-22 SCHOOL PROFILE

OVERVIEW

Longleaf School of the Arts is a public, college-preparatory school integrating academics with fine and performing arts. All students are encouraged to pursue the most rigorous coursework, explore new art forms and deepen artistic skills. The first Senior Class graduated in 2016.
Current Enrollment – 375 Students in Grades 9-12
Student-Faculty Ratio – 13:1
Course Load: Students take 7 year-long courses

CURRICULUM

Longleaf seeks to develop students who will make connections across disciplines to solve real world problems. To this end, Longleaf not only requires 4 Arts elective credits, but also a credit in Cognitive Development. Longleaf offers 45 Honors classes and 18 Advanced Placement classes. Students are typically not recommended for AP courses until Junior Year.
