

Hanna Hjalmeby
Director of Exceptional Children
Email: hjalmeby@longleafschool.com

Hanna Hjalmeby, pronounced 'yell-ma-bee', is a graduate of Indian River State College in Florida with a Bachelors of Science in Exceptional Children. She has been working as an EC Director for over six years.

Hanna lives in Raleigh with her dog Mila. In her free time, she enjoys baking and exploring the outdoors. Her family moved to Florida from Sweden before she was born. She grew up speaking Swedish in her home and English outside of the home. She tries to visit Sweden and her relatives there at least every two years.