

Devon Shook

Choral Music

Email: shook@longleafschool.com

Class Website:

Chorus & Fund. of Music

Devon Shook is an Appalachian State University graduate with a BM in Music Education with a concentration in choral music. Mr. Shook is from the small town of Maiden, North Carolina, which is about 30 minutes Northwest of Charlotte. After graduating from ASU, he was the chorus teacher at North Brunswick High School for two years. Mr. Shook was the Music Director for the first ever musical in the school's history, and plans to continue working with the musicals at Longleaf.

In his free time, Mr. Shook enjoys being a saltwater and freshwater fish tank hobbyist. He has a 125 gallon saltwater tank and a 75 gallon African Cichlid tank that he enjoys maintaining and looking at. He also has a little fluffy bunny named Simba that he has had since September and they enjoy going on hops. When he is not with his pets, he is most likely with friends, at the beach, or playing volleyball. Mr. Shook enjoys sports, especially NFL (Go Panthers and Cowboys!) and NCAA Basketball (Go Tarheels!).

Mr. Shook is very excited to be at Longleaf and cannot wait to see what the future holds for him at our school!